(3) A person occupying a plot, stall or a house leased or rented out by the County government shall pay rent, at the rate specified in the Schedule. (4) The rent referred to under subsection (3) shall be due— (a) in case of a plot, on the 1st day of January in each year; and (b) In case of a house or a stall, on the last day of each month. (5) A person who contravenes the provisions of subsections (3) or 4(b) may be evicted for failure to pay the rent for three consecutive months. (6) A penalty of two per cent per month or a part thereof shall be charged on the outstanding rent on a plot that remains unpaid after 31st day of March. (7) The County government may repossess the plot referred to under subsection 3 if the person fails to pay the rent for more than three consecutive years. (8) A person shall not advertise any construction works within the County unless authorized to do so by the relevant County government department responsible for physical planning. (9) A person who wishes to advertise any construction works shall pay the fee as provided in the Schedule upon applying for a permit to the County government department responsible for physical planning. (10) The County government may grant the permit referred to under subsections8 and 9 upon payment of fees prescribed in the Schedule. (11) A person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence.

Rates	9.(1) A person who owns a ratable property(s) in the County shall pay rates and, or rent as specified in the Schedule (2) A penalty of 2% compound interest shall be charged on all outstanding rates or rent until fully paid (3) Rates shall be paid to – a) the receiver of revenue; or b) a collection agent authorized in writing by the county executive committee member; c) Or any other person authorized in writing by the county executive committee member to collect rates. (4)The receiver of revenue shall issue a receipt for the payment of rates to the person who paid the rates. (5) The County government may charge interest on any amount of rates remaining unpaid after the day on which the rates became payable (6)(a) The County government shall recover any overdue rates and penalty interest as a debt. (b) The overdue rates and penalty interest are recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due and owing to the County government from the person liable for payment of the rates. (c) Subject to subsection (7a), the Civil Procedure Act CAP. 21 and the rules made under that Act apply to recovery proceedings. (d) A certificate signed by the receiver of revenue certifying that; i. an amount of rates is or was due and payable on or before a certain date; and ii. the rates are overdue and penalty interest is payable; is admissible as evidence against the defendant in proceedings under this section, and is prima facie evidence as to the matters certified. (e) Before commencing proceedings against a person under this section, the Director of Revenue shall send a written notice to the person at his last known address– i. setting out the amount of the overdue rates, including any penalty interest; and ii. stating that unless the overdue amount and penalty interest are paid in full within such period as is specified in the notice or an agreement is reached to repay the overdue amount and penalty interest; recovery proceedings against the person for the overdue amount and penalty interest will be commenced as soon as practicable after the end of the period so specified. (7)This subsection applies if the owner of ratable property owes the County government for overdue rates on the property, including any penalty interest; a. The overdue rates and any penalty interest are a charge on the rateable property. b. If the title to the rateable property is registered under the Land Registration Act 2012, the County government may deliver a notification of such charge, in the prescribed form, to the Registrar who shall register it against the title to that property. c. Subject to any national law, the charge has priority over any other encumbrances over the rateable property. d. If the overdue rates and penalty interest are paid, the County government shall lodge with the Registrar – i. a request to release the charge over the rateable property, in the prescribed form; and ii. a certificate signed by the county executive committee member that states the overdue rates and charges have been paid. If an amount of rates payable on a rateable property has been in arrears for three years or more, the County government may sell the property in accordance with this section. Before the County government sells the rateable property, the County Executive Member shall send a notice to the owner of the rateable property - i. stating the period for which the rates have been in arrears; and ii. stating the amount of the total liability for rates, including penalty interest, presently outstanding in relation to the property; and iii. stating that if that amount is not paid in full within one month after service of the notice or such longer time but not exceeding 90 days as the executive member may allow, the County Government intends to sell the property for non-payment of rates. (a) If the executive member cannot, after making reasonable inquiries, ascertain the name and address of a person to whom a notice is to be sent under subsection (9) and the executive member considers that it is unlikely that a notice sent under subsection (9) would come to the attention of the person to whom it is to be sent; i. the executive member shall cause service of the notice to be effected by placing a copy of the notice in a newspaper of national circulation; and ii. by leaving a copy of the notice in a conspicuous place on the rateable property. (b) If the outstanding amount is not paid in full within the time allowed under subsection (8b), the county executive committee member may proceed to have the property sold. (c) The sale shall be by public auction and the executive member may set a reserve price based on a professional valuation report for the purposes of the auction. (d) The auction shall be advertised in a newspaper of national circulation and the date of the auction shall be not less than 30 days from the date of the advertisement. (e) If, before the date of the auction, the outstanding amount of rates and penalty interest, and the costs incurred by the County government in proceeding under this section are paid to the County government, the executive member shall call off the auction.

	(f) If an auction fails, the County government may sell the rateable property by private contract for the best price that it can reasonably obtain. (a) Any money received by the County government in respect of the sale of rateable property under this section is to be applied in the order as follows- i. in paying the costs of the sale and any other costs incurred in proceeding under that section; ii. in discharging any liabilities to the County government in respect of the property; iii. in discharging any liability to the State for charges or taxes, or any prescribed liability to the State in respect of the property; iv. in discharging any liabilities secured by registered mortgages, encumbrances or charges; v. in discharging any other mortgages, encumbrances and charges of which the County government has notice; vi. in payment to the owner of the property. b) If the owner of the rateable property cannot be found after making reasonable inquiries as to his or her whereabouts, an amount payable to the owner must be dealt with as unclaimed money under the Unclaimed Financial Assets Act 2011. c) If property is sold in pursuance of a sale under sub section (8) an instrument of transfer under the County government's public seal will, on registration, operate to vest title to the property in the purchaser. d) The title vested in a purchaser under subsection (18) is deemed to be free of all mortgages and charges. e) An instrument of transfer in pursuance of a sale under sub section(8) shall, when lodged with the Registrar, be accompanied by a statutory declaration made by the county executive committee member stating that the requirements of sub section (8) in relation to the sale of the property have been observed. f) If it is not reasonably practicable to obtain the duplicate certificate of title to property that is sold under subsection (8), the Registrar may register a transfer despite the non-production of the duplicate, but in that event will cancel the existing certificate of title for the property and issue a new certificate in the name of the transferee. g) The use of one kind of remedy to recover overdue rates and penalty interest does not limit any other remedy that the County government has to recover overdue rates and penalty interest Refusal to issue permits, licences and permissions for unpaid rateable property	1) This section applies if the owner of a rateable property owes the County Government for overdue rates, including any penalty or interest. 2) The County government may in relation to the rateable property do any or all of the following- a) refuse to issue or renew a permit or licence to the owner of the rateable property in respect of any business operated by the owner in or on the rateable property; b) refuse any permission or approval relating to the subdivision of the rateable property by the owner; c) refuse any permission or approval relating to planning, building or other activities to be undertaken by the owner of the rateable property in or on the property;

	d) refuse to provide any other service to the owner of the rateable property, being a service that relates to the use or proposed use of the rateable property by the owner; until the overdue rates and penalty interest are paid in full. 3) Any waiver, remission, reduction, deferment or postponement of payments of rates and penalty interest, including any payments by installments, shall be in accordance with the existing regulations. 4) Any registration of an instrument referred to in section 38 of the Land Registration Act 2012 relating to property in the County is subject to the County government issuing a statement certifying that all outstanding rates and penalty interest have been paid in accordance with that section.
